Collision between State and Federal Officials in Rhode Island—Indignant Speech of the Governor to the State Senate—U. S. Troops and a Cutter Placed at the Disposal of the U. S. Marshal.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Gov. Howard, of Rhode Island, presented to the Senate of that State, yesterday, the report of the chief constable relative to official interference of U. S. Marshal Coggshall, at the recent seizure of liquors, which were under the protection of the State. On presenting the report the governor made a speech, in the course of which he said: "In the collision between the officers stated and the United States, he was called on by a member of the constabulary and informed of the existing difficulty and asked to interfere in the matter. Although there was no doubt in my own mind that I might direct a portion of the military establishment of the State to sustain the State officers and the law, yet prudence required that the question might better be decided by the court rather than by the intervention of the military. I therefore directed the [illegible] to make no further effort to [illegible] the liquor then held by the U. S. marshal and [illegible] chief of police. As a result this has been [illegible] hailed as a victory on the part of the U. S. marshal and his deputy. I agree fully with the universal opinion that these attachments are collusive, and a thinly disguised shame, and I share the general sense of mortification at the indignity to which our commonwealth was subjected. I realize also the gravity of the situation and recognize it as an imperative duty to take measures for an early and proper adjustment of the question. There have been dinned into our ears for the past six months threats in regard to Fort Anderson and revenue cutters, but so long as these threats are words, they have been treated as such; yet when it is gravely stated by a respectable and intelligent journal that troops from Fort Adams and the U. S. revenue cutter Samuel Dexter, had been placed at the disposition of the marshal, it seems proper to ask why is this done? It must be for the purpose of [illegible] the people of a State who, from [illegible] of its settlement, have been noted for their [illegible] and patriotism. Your presence here, senators, is a mockery and a farce when such proceedings as these are sustained by the federal government. Your honorable judiciary and executive may as well resign their offices and leave the control and direction of State affairs to the subordinates of the U. S. government. No graver question has been forced upon the State since its first settlement. It is a vital question, for in it are involved the sovereignty of the State and its harmonious relations with the United States. The little State of Rhode Island is entitled on such points to equal respect as larger States or the general [illegible] itself."

The [illegible] men of Sioux City [illegible] organized a Black Hills Transportation Company, and expect to start the first train about the 1st of April.

Wall Street Excited Again.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Wall street markets were active to-day with some important changes. Early in the day a strong effort was made to unsettle matters by making gold scarce and dear. Loans were called in freely and borrowers had to pay one dimenth per diem for short time. This high rate soon brought large amounts of gold into the loan market, especially from Canada banks, and very soon gold was loaned free of interest. The movement had no effect on the money market, and call loans were easy at 4 to 5 per cent. On stock exchange there was further improvement and a buoyant feeling in many shares. Some of the bears attempted to cover, and in doing so carried up prices. It was known that about $6,000,000 gold had been taken out of the market and that everything else had been done which was deemed necessary to secure the success of the squeeze promised for to-day.

Dispatches from Canada report a general improvement in the money market, there, which began a week or ten days ago, and steadily continues.

RICHMOND, March 6.—Givven, of this city, introduced a bill in the House to punish parties creating disturbances in hotels, theaters, etc. It provides that persons who create disturbance in hotels by [illegible] demands for accommodation, after the proprietor or agent has declined to entertain for want of room or other reasonable specified causes, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment. In the case of theaters managers have the right to issue reserved seat tickets, stamped not transferable, and when a person not the original purchaser demands admittance, the door keeper can refuse him, [illegible] the money must be refunded, and if he refuses to take the money and thereby creates a disturbance, he will be liable to arrest and fine. In both cases half the fine goes to the hotel keeper or manager, as the case may be. There are similar provisions in regard to steamers and railroads.

Party Caucuses in Session.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The Republican members of the Senate are in caucus this afternoon. There is a full attendance including Christiancy, Cameron of Wisconsin, and Paddock. The Democratic senators are holding an informal consultation. Ex-President Johnson is not at either meeting. The Republican caucus, after nearly three hours discussion, decided that the Senate shall take the following action on the resolutions submitted: First—The resolution declaring Pinchback entitled to a seat in the Senate. Second—Resolution declaring the Kellogg administration the legal government of Louisiana. Some senators wanted the order of consideration reversed.

Logan, Howe, Frelinghuysen, Morrill of Maine, Sargent, French and Spencer were appointed a committee to revise the standing committees. A similar committee, composed of Stevenson, Bogy, Saulsbury, Davis and White was appointed by the Democratic caucus to confer with the Republican committee, as to the representation of the minority, with instructions to inform the Republicans that the Democrats are entitled to and expect to have, in view of their increased numbers, an increased representation in the committees, say at least, 2 on committees of 7 members, and 3 on committees of 9; also that the minority should be accorded a chairmanship and control of one other committee besides that on private land claims, which they have heretofore held. The Democratic caucus being called for the purpose of organization did not discuss any political question. The Republican caucus beyond determining the order of business, took no action binding the members in regard to the final disposition of the Louisiana question.

Pacific Coast Measures Which Failed.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The following additional Pacific coast measures failed to receive final action by this Congress: Clayton and Luttrell's amendments for a tax on imitation champagne, to protect California wine makers; Luttrell's resolution for an investigation of Central Pacific affairs; Kendall's bills prohibiting unjust railways discriminations, to encourage the sinking of Artesian wells, and to pay Nevada Indian war claims; Mitchell and Nesmith's bill to aid the building of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad. All Oregon and Washington Territory bills respecting swamp lands, namely, Nez Perce and Klamath reservations, Olympia tide flats and lands, and the Seattle and Walla, and Roseburg railroads. Also all bills proposing to compel courts [illegible] miners to patent and pay for claims.

Decision of the Secretary of the Interior in a Land Case.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The Secretary of the Interior to-day made an important decision in the case of Arrocorchea against the State of California and sundry pre-emption claimants to lands within the limits of the Los Pereitos grants. Arrocorchea's application to purchase it at $1 25 per acre as an innocent purchaser under the rejected Mexican grant, is refused on its merits. The State University and other scrip selection is declared void and the land awarded to pre-emption claimants. An entirely new and important principle is established by the decision; that an irregular or invalid State selection does not withdraw public land from pre-emption settlement.

The McGarrahan Compromise.

The following is the full text of the compromise clause in regard to the McGarrahan matter, as finally enacted in the sundry civil appropriation bill: That the secretary of the interior be and is hereby authorized to directly cause a careful examination to be made for the purpose of ascertaining whether any person, firm or corporation is now occupying any larger portion of the lands known as the Rancho Panoche grant than is authorized and allowed by laws relating to mining lands; that he make full and detailed reports of such examination to Congress at the beginning of the next session, and to enable the secretary of the interior to carry into effect this provision, $5,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated.

A New Treaty with Spain Proposed.

CHICAGO, March 6.—A Washington special says it is reported among the legations that the President will send to the Senate the draft of a new treaty with Spain, which will propose a substantial modification of the treaty of 1795, which is the basis of existing commercial relations between the two countries. The new treaty is said to be the work of Caleb Cushing. An extradition treaty was proposed to be submitted before the downfall of the Spanish Republic, but the accession of Alfonso to the throne stopped all negotiations. Cushing was to have formally recognized the Alfonso Government to-day.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Louisiana committee changed their intention of holding a session for perfecting the Wheeler compromise, and decided to adjourn to New York, where the first session will be held on Thursday next, if the necessary papers arrive from New Orleans.

Instructions to Minister Cushing on our Negotiations with Spain.

The speech of Minister Cushing to King Alfonso will contain only the customary formal expressions of friendship of the United States for Spain. He, however, has special instructions to govern him in the negotiations which were initiated under the late republican government and are now to be consummated. These negotiations contemplate the full settlement of all questions pending between the two governments, while Minister Cushing, like his predecessors, will also exert himself to negotiate a new treaty of commerce and navigation, none having been made with Spain since 1795. Some favorable arrangements respecting our trade with Cuba will continue to be pressed by our government.

It is probable that the Department of State will, during the present executive session of the Senate, transmit to that body sundry documents on the subject of Spanish affairs.

Nine New Paymasters Appointed.

The President has prepared a list of nine new paymasters, which he will send to the Senate to-morrow. The nominations are nearly equally divided between regular and volunteer officers. There were 210 applicants.

An Interview with Andy Johnson—His Future Course.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent telegraphs a long interview with Senator Johnson of Tennessee, who is reported as saying: "I can give no pledge of my future course. I cannot say that I will act with one party or the other. We have too much of party, and I propose to bind myself in advance to no theory of party policy. I have never done so in the past and I do not intend to do so in the future. I shall support such measures as appear in my judgment for the good of the country, caring not whether it is a Democratic measure or whether it is supported by Republicans. I will never place myself in a position where I must do a thing because it is a party measure, or oppose things at a party's dictation. I place country above party." Johnson could not say whether he would participate in the debate on the Pinchback resolution. Being asked if he would not in his new position have an opportunity to pay off some old scores, and if he did not have a mass of facts against the leaders of the parties of to-day, he said: "Whatever I may have I do not say, but I shall use nothing. My service in the Senate will not be a personal one. I do not represent myself, but Tennessee. The country has now nothing to do with my personal matters, and what has passed. I have no enemies to punish or friends to reward. I have buried resentments and have forgotten the ill-treatment of individuals. If I can perform the duties that are now before me as conscientiously and as clearly as I see them at this moment I shall accomplish as much as human vanity may seek to attain."

NEW YORK, March 7.—Henry Varley, the English Evangelist, preached this evening to a congregation of about 7,000 people.

Bonds to be Called In.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Secretary of the Treasury will issue a call this week for thirty million dollar bonds on account of the sinking fund, under the act of March 3d, 1875.

Action of the Republican Caucus.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Republican senatorial caucus has not yet completed the list of standing committees. The Democratic senators have been informed that they will be allowed two members on the committee of seven, and three on the committee of nine. The chairmanship of all committees will remain the same as during the late session, with the exception of those heretofore filled by outgoing senators. Chairmanships are elected as a rule from those first on the list after the names of retired members. The succession of Senator Wright to be chairman of the committee on claims, will leave Senator Boutwell chairman of the committee on civil service and retrenchment; Hamlin, chairman of the postoffice committee; Windom, public lands; Allison, Indian affairs; Oglesby, pensions; Hitchcock, territories; West, railroads; Sargent, mines and mining. It is probable Conkling will be chairman of the committee on commerce, and Spencer of the District of Columbia.

Ruling on the Whisky Tax.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The internal revenue office rules that when a cistern contains spirits produced before and after midnight on the 3d of March, the burden of proof rests on the distiller to show the time and quantity distilled on the 3d. Unless satisfactory evidence is given the collector of the quantity so produced, the whole contents must be stamped at 90 cents, and the distiller left to prove his claim for refund.

THE TILTON-BEECHER CASE.

Rumor of Discontinuance of the Suit and its Explanation.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Rumors prevailed yesterday, in the absence of any proceedings in the Beecher trial, that one of the parties to the suit had left, and there would necessarily follow a discontinuance of the case. The rumors, doubtless, grew out of the report that one of the principal counsel had resolved to withdraw in consequence of neglect of his other business, which the attendance for months in the Brooklyn court had caused. He has been induced, however, to remain in the case, and will doubtless continue till the close.

The Sick Juror Convalescent.

Jeffries, the sick juror, has entirely recovered from his indisposition.

Number of Spectators to be Limited—Majority are Ladies.

The attendance at the trial is to be limited hereafter, and Judge Neilson has expressed his intention to allow in the court-room only the number of spectators that will just fill the seats. When filled the court-room will hold at least 600 people, and on no day since the trial began have there been less than 500 spectators present. Most persons who apply for admission are ladies, and sometimes they succeed in passing the guards.

The main obstacle is the question who will be minister of the interior, not yet removed. The Left propose to submit an interpellation in the Assembly so as to cause delay in the formation of a ministry.

NOTES FROM SALEM.

SALEM, March 5, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

There is rather a dearth of news in this city, and the most noted instance is the death of Mr. R. C. Kinney, whose funeral took place yesterday, and was largely attended.

On Wednesday, a son of Mr. Stout's, who resides near Smith's ferry on the north fork of the Santiam, fell out of the barn loft and struck the back of his head upon a mower and cut a gash about three inches long, besides knocking him senseless for nearly half an hour, but when I passed along on Thursday, he was getting along nicely, with a fair prospect of rapid recovery.

The storm for the past week has been the hardest of the winter upon stock, especially the poorest and weakest, and some apprehensions are felt by owners, providing the storm should continue any length of time.

The Independent Champions of the Red Cross, wishing to raise money for their benefit, played "Ten Nights in a Bar-room" to a large audience, and evidently it must have been a financial success. The performers were ladies and gentlemen who probably had never before appeared before an audience as actors, consequently it was not first-class acting, while one or two did very well. After the performance, those of the audience who wished, repaired to the spacious dining room of the Commercial hotel and enjoyed a supper that had been prepared for the occasion, but the hour being late we did not remain.

There was some excitement caused to-day in regard to a report that was in circulation, of a new quartz lode lately discovered near Independence, Polk county. But no one could be found who could give any reliable information on the subject, consequently we await further developments.

The German, Hanfret, was released yesterday from the county jail, by compromise and payment of $100.

This evening news was received that the Willamette Chief had been snagged a short distance below Buena Vista, and was run upon a bar near by. The Gov. Grover brought down her passengers.

GREAT GUNS.—The Turkish Government has ordered five hundred pieces of artillery to be manufactured by Krupp, of Essen, Germany, at a cost of a million sterling. The largest, which is fourteen inches in diameter, and cost £25,000, has been presented by Herr Krupp to the Sultan, and the latter has in return conferred upon him the Order of the Medjidie of the second class. This and the larger guns are to be used in the forts on the Bosphorus on the side of the Black Sea.

San Francisco Wants the Hawaiian Treaty

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—A number of the leading firms of this city have telegraphed to A. A. Sargent and Newton Booth requesting them to support in the Senate the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty, claiming that all classes favor the treaty except sugar refiners, who are endeavoring to make contracts with Hawaiian planters with a view of defeating the treaty and establishing a monopoly here to crush eastern competition and advance prices.

Wreck of a Fishing Boat—All the Crew Lost.

The fishing boat Garibaldi, missing for several days past, was found on the beach at New Year's Point. The lines and clothing of the men were found on board, but no bodies. No doubt this was the Garibaldi crew, consisting of three men.

On the 22d she was off Point Concepcion, where she met a heavy norther which carried her back down the coast for sixty miles, south of Guadaloupe Island. FARMING ITEMS.

The Farmer has entered upon its VIIth volume.

A largely increased acreage of wheat will be sown in Lane county this season.

Fir Butte Grange, Lane county, has donated $20 for the relief of suffering Nebraska.

The grain that was in store at Independence is nearly all shipped and what is left is being rapidly taken away. The grain trade of that place is quite extensive and is increasing every year.

Mr. S. G. Reed has removed his fine stock in Washington county to the Five Oaks farm, north of Reedsville, where he will keep his blooded horses, Young Marquis and Autocrat, the coming summer.

The Grangers of Pierce county, Washington Territory, are talking of building a big warehouse on the line of the Northern Pacific railroad, two miles from Lakeview and about twelve from Tacoma. They want a depot established there.

Plowing and seeding is going on well in Lewis county, the farmers there taking advantage of the favorable weather. We are informed that a larger amount of grain than usual will be sown in that county this season. Lewis is one of the best counties in the territory.

It is now a fixed fact that Corvallis is to have an Alden fruit drying establishment. A meeting of the stockholders of the Alden Fruit Preserving Company of Corvallis was held at Judge Chenoweth's office on the 1st inst. The capital stock was fixed at $5,000, in shares of $100 each.

Mr. Jerry Phillips returned from a trip to Lone Rock valley, in the southeast portion of Wasco county, on Wednesday of last week. He reports that the live stock in that section are doing well, and the loss the past winter has been moderate. The snow has about all disappeared up to the base of the Blue Mountains.

The Northwestern Farmer learns that twenty or more families are expected to arrive here on the opening of spring to settle in the Chehalis valley, Washington Territory, families that were frozen out in the western States. The Chehalis valley will contain many times twenty families if the proper method is taken [illegible]

Major R. R. Rees, of Walla Walla, writes under date of Feb. 25th, as follows: "Our winter is broke at last, after seven long weeks of snow. The mortality among stock has not been by far so great as was anticipated. In fact, but few persons have lost, and in such cases it was only stock that had estrayed, and could not be found."

A correspondent of the Record, writing from Independence, says: "A merchant (?) of Independence went into the pork business and when he rendered the lard he mixed over 1,500 pounds of tallow in with it. The tallow cost him 7 cents, his lard brought him 15 cents, so he made a nice thing of it. But look a little further. The lard was sold in Portland, and the greater portion shipped to Washington Territory and Idaho. Now this lard will not keep as sweet as if it had been rendered pure, and of course will spoil on somebody's hands, who is sure to curse the Oregon farmers for practicing such a cheat."

The Olympia Transcript says: "Fred. A. Clarke, Esq., of Puyallup valley, is in town. He reports extensive preparations being made there for increasing the area of hop yards. Besides several new ones, the old ones are being enlarged from three to twenty acres each. Messrs. Thompson & Meade and E. M. Meeker are the largest growers, but should prices be well sustained for a year or two longer, they must make further enlargements in order to lead in the production. There are no idle hands there. Everyone finds employment at paying rates. We can only wish that their most sanguine expectations as to results of their labors, may be realized. Hop poles are in good demand in Puyallup, and at paying prices, and next year several hundred thousand will be required to finish supplying the new yards planted this year."

LONDON, Feb. 22—5 A. M.—Advices from Zanzibar report that a fleet of British men-of-war have bombarded and captured Fort Mozambique, on the island of Mombaz, off the coast of Africa. The engagement lasted five hours. Seventeen of the garrison were killed and fifty wounded. Two slave-ships were captured, with 300 slaves on board.

OREGON.

A 60-light gas machine has been ordered for the court house at Salem.

The wife of ex-Congressman Nesmith is quite ill at the family residence in Polk Co.

It snowed quite briskly at Lafayette, Amity and Monmouth on the last day of February.

Protracted meetings have been held at the Methodist church in The Dalles for the past two weeks.

James Bradford, of Lane county, was held to answer to a charge of the larceny of a watch last week.

T. M. Martin, of Gate creek, Lane county, killed a half-famished panther of large size in his back yard last week.

A Eugene jeweler is fixing up a clock which has been running since 1828—almost half a century—without repairs.

Grandpa Henkle, of Corvallis, was visited by many of his friends on the 3d inst., it being the 87th anniversary of his birth.

G. W. C. T. W. R. Dunbar, has, without consultation, commissioned Dr. J. W. Watts, of Lafayette, State Deputy at Large for the State of Oregon, with power to organize lodges anywhere in the State.

The Baptist church now in course of construction in the Dalles will be 30x50 feet and 18 feet from floor to ceiling. It is going to be one of the prettiest little churches in the State, and an ornament to the city.

Capt. Allen, of the schooner Alice Kimball, reports having taken soundings while crossing the Yaquina bar on his last trip in and found twenty-four feet of water on the bar at half tide. He beat in against an east wind.

Hon. A. J. Dufur, Centennial Commissioner for Oregon, is expected to address the people of Eugene on the subject of the exhibition very soon. Mr. Dufur is an earnest and effective worker for the cause to which he has been assigned.

It is reported that the bill providing for the removal of the Indians from the Alsea reservation to the Siletz reserve, and throwing open the lands occupied by the Alsea Indians to settlement by the whites, had passed both Houses of Congress and been signed by the President.

An Indian, named "California Tommy," was found dead near Mr. Thrasher's, on the Yaquina, from a gun-shot. The ball entered the breast and came out at the side. His rifle was found by him, but the range of the shot leaves suspicions that it was not a case of suicide.

One day last week Mr. Wm. Vaughn, who lives in Willamette precinct, Lane county, was kicked by a horse and seriously injured. His ribs were broken and forced into the lungs, leaving a passage through which the air inhaled by the lungs escaped. He will probably recover.

In a drunken row, on the 11th inst., at Newport, an Indian known as "California Jack," was kicked and beaten in a most desperate and brutal manner. His recovery is doubtful. Two of the white participants in the row left the bay last Sunday morning about 4 o'clock.

A writing school at Lafayette had a big scare last week over nothing. One of the young lady pupils saw some boys looking in at the window and screamed, when the others followed suit and ran for the door. Some thought the house was on fire, others said the house was falling, etc., etc. Strange to say, no one was hurt, and only one girl fainted.

The meeting to devise ways and means to finish the State University met at the court house in Eugene City on Saturday, Feb. 27th, 1875, at 10 o'clock A. M., pursuant to previous notice. R. B. Cochran was chosen President, and John. Kelly, Secretary. The several precincts in the county were nearly all represented. It was determined to use increased efforts to raise funds to finish the building.

MINING ITEMS.

The Statesman says: "The OREGONIAN has been sold on a gold mine discovery near Independence." Not at all; we only gave what our correspondent wrote without vouching for it in the least.

The Gazette says: "A recent qualitative analysis of the Yaquina bay marl, made in the laboratory of the Agricultural College, at Corvallis, before the Analytical Chemistry Class, proved the presence of the following substances, most of which are valuable as fertilizers, viz.: Silica; Phosphoric Acid, (very rich); Sulphuric Acid; Carbonic Acid; Potassa; Soda; Alumina; Iron; Lime and Magnesia. As reported by the Analytical Chemistry Class."

From Mr. Egbert French, a merchant doing business at Goldendale, W. T., who arrived at The Dalles on Wednesday last week for the purpose of purchasing mining tools, the Mountaineer learns that new and extensive gold mines have lately been discovered five miles north of Goldendale on the Canyon road in the Klickitat valley. The excitement has already spread over the entire valley, and everybody has gone to the new diggings to secure a claim. It appears that a company have been at work ground-sluicing all winter, and in cleaning up have taken out a large quantity of the precious metal, which has caused the great excitement.

The Benton Democrat, of last Saturday, makes the following extracts from a private letter received from Mr. J. C. Vannoy, of Grant's pass: "This (the "Yank") ledge, is 200 feet wide where it crosses Rogue river, and rises clear from the bottom of the gulch, to the hight of from 300 to 500 feet; of course no one can tell how deep it descends toward the center of the earth. The casing on one side is iron ore, and on the other, slate. The ledge has been traced a distance of 25 miles, and sufficient quartz has been found on this one ledge to keep 500 mills running for 100 years. Where this ledge crosses Rock gulch it divides, which is very rich. A large number of good rich ledges have already been found in the mountains of this section, and as soon as the snow leaves the ground, prospecting will be resumed and a large number of ledges will be found and developed. There is no road to the mines yet, but one will be commenced soon. A ferry has been established across Rogue river; three town sites have already been laid off, and they will soon be made to connect with each other, forming a town some three or four miles in length. Work is progressing finely, and mills will be erected soon. A sawmill will be in operation early in March. A hotel and a livery stable are very nearly ready for business, and other business houses are being constructed. Crowds of men are coming from every direction, and it is thought that there will be from 2,000 to 3,000 people in this camp this summer."

Edward Spangler, one of the parties who was arrested for complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln, died at the residence of Dr. Samuel A. Mudd, near Bryantown, Maryland, on Saturday last. Spangler was a native of Pennsylvania, and, it will be remembered, at the time of the murder was a stage carpenter in Ford's theater. It was alleged against him that he took charge of Booth's horses, and arranged to have a way kept open for him in the theater to escape. Spangler, in company with Dr. Mudd and Arnold, was pardoned and released from his imprisonment at the Dry Tortugas about the close of President Johnson's administration. About two years ago he took up his residence with Dr. Mudd, with whom he was on terms of very close friendship. Of the other parties, Booth was killed; Harrold, Atzerot, Payne and Mrs. Surratt were executed, and O'Laughlin died at the Dry Tortugas.—Chicago Tribune Feb. 24.

A few weeks ago the town marshal of Port Townsend, Levi Stevens, was murdered by one of three Indians whom he was trying to arrest. They were sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury, and last week that body not having found a true bill the Indians were discharged from custody.

WASHINGTON COUNTY LETTER.

HILLSBORO, March 8, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The March rains have laid an embargo on the operations of the farmers for several days past, and the plow and the harrow have been left to rust in the fields. Times are dull, generally speaking, owing to the scarcity of money. The wheat being frozen out in a great measure, makes an extra demand on the pockets for seed—a demand which our people little dreamed of. The result is that moneys that have been laid by for incidental expenses have to supply this deficiency. "Incidentals" are left to chance, and chance is the father of indebtedness and finally bankruptcy, though we have no fears that our farmers, as a mass, will be driven to this last extremity.

The acreage must necessarily fall short this year in the county, as much of the work has to be done over, though not requiring the time formerly consumed. Many contend that there will be no falling off in quantity because the frost, as a fertilizer, will increase the number of bushels, and equal the loss of acreage;—a proposition that your humble servant doubts very much, because the loss of acreage will be not less than one-third and to increase the yield one-third would be marvelous.

The wheat market in Europe at the present time is very unsatisfactory, and to take the present state of markets for a criterion, there is but little hope of getting over 75 cents a bushel for wheat the coming harvest. These indications, together with the fact that many of our people have lost heavily in live stock east of the mountains, have brought about a system of financial hedging among moneyed men that adds somewhat to the embarrassment. The hue and cry that there is no money to be had is rather peculiar, especially when it is followed by the announcement that our sister State is complaining that her money is only worth 6 per cent, while we, of Oregon, are clamoring for the use of it at 12 per cent, on the best of security, and would get it were it not for the hedging.

While these things are somewhat discouraging, and the condition of affairs is fully understood, yet our people have no time for despondency. The winter has been put in in repairing and general improvements which add materially to the wealth and convenience of the owners. One of the evidences of the increased population and wealth of the county is that places that heretofore were familiar to us as wild slopes, used as hunting grounds, are dotted over by settlers who are making rapid strides toward building up comfortable homes for themselves and families.

So far as subsistence is concerned our people have an abundance for themselves, and all that may come to our State for a year to come. Our county's finances are healthy, to say the least, so that the only drawback of the present adversity will be a temporary suspension of much needed improvements, both in manufactory and on the farm. SOUTHWEST.

THE TERRITORIES.

Judge Clark, a newly appointed judge in Idaho, held his maiden term of the district court at Boise City last week.

Mr. P. P. Clark, who had the mail contract between Bozeman and Virginia City, Montana, has relinquished it, and a special contract has been let to C. C. Huntly.

The six little children of the late Mrs. Sloan, are to start East soon, to be placed in the care of their grandfather in Pennsylvania. Their father is in the asylum at Steilacoom almost hopelessly insane.

There is at present an unusual amount of sickness in Olympia. Colds, sore-throat, diptheria and lung-fever have made their unwelcome presence in many homes, and death has followed in their wake in some.

The Tacoma Tribune says: "The American ship Orient, of 1,800 tons measurement, arrived at Utsalady from San Francisco last Friday. She is loading spars for Cork, in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. The Orient is one of the three largest ships that ever loaded on Puget Sound; the Great Pacific of 1,700 tons being one, and the Jeremiah Thompson of 1,900 tons the other. Utsalady also loaded the Pacific and Thompson, and now adds the Orient, in her pretensions as to the port to which three-deckers have to go for cargoes."

The Courier says: "Olympia and all the Upper Sound are well supplied in mail service now, and they know how to appreciate it, after the taste given them last fall of being 'left out in the cold.' The regular mail contract calls for three trips a week, which are promptly performed, and then Capt. Wright, of the Zephyr, gives us an extra one for which he asks and gets no pay except the thanks of scores who are greatly accommodated by his generous action. He makes two trips per week and carries the mails both times, although his contract only requires him to take it once."

SPAIN AND THE UNITED STATES.

THE SETTLEMENT OF THE VIRGINIUS QUESTION NEARLY COMPLETE—THE INDEMNITY TO FAMILIES OF THE AMERICAN CITIZENS PUT TO DEATH.

[Special dispatch to the New York Times.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The terms of the settlement between Mr. Cushing and the new government of Spain were received through the mail by Mr. Fish last week, and were read in Cabinet meeting on Friday. A long and very interesting dispatch has also been received from Mr. Cushing giving a narrative of the events attending the establishment of [illegible] complete, excepting the signature by Mr. Fish, and the arrangement is entirely satisfactory. It has not been made official because our government has not yet recognized the government of Alfonso, nor have the credentials of Senor Mantilla, as the representative of Spain, been received by the United States. Mr. Cushing's credentials have been some days under way, and he has probably received them by this time, or will very soon. If any time has been fixed for their presentation and the recognition of the new government, that time is not yet announced. But at some time, not very far distant, the recognition of the government of Alfonso and the full and satisfactory settlement of the claims of our government on account of the seizure of the Virginius will take place together. Spain has professed for many months a willingness to pay the indemnity for the Americans of the crew of the Virginius who were put to death, but has persisted in presenting and urging a counter claim for the Virginius itself, which Spain regards as her lawful prize. As the terms now awaiting ratification are said to be satisfactory, it may be inferred that they include the surrender of this question on the part of Spain, and the payment of $2,500 to the family of each of the Americans of the crew. The fact that Spanish affairs were alluded to in the Cabinet Friday has given rise to renewed rumors of complications, and Cuban sympathizers and Cuban bondholders are again busy in attempts to procure the publication of sensational dispatches. With the settlement of the difficulties between the two governments, which is apparently so near attainment, these mischief-makers must look to new fields for the exercise of their avocation.

"HOW THEY DO IN MONTANA.—A Montana paper thinks there is an awful fuss being made over the Beecher trial. "Why," it says, "right out here is Bill Casey. He went into a family, married one girl, spoiled another and has run away with the third, and yet there is no trial; no statements, no nothing, only just the old man with a rifle, looking around after Bill."

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 8, 1875.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Portland's public schools are her pride. She has made more of them than would seem possible from a cursory inspection of the general school law of the State, under which they have been organized; more than would be possible without a very liberal construction of some provisions of the law. Her tax-payers have never been parsimonious in voting support to the schools. They have always given freely for school buildings, and to maintain an ample corps of instructors, and they have been gratified to see that in general the taxes levied have been judiciously and honestly expended. Some few instances, however, there have been, in which such was not the case. The expenditures, a little over two years ago, on the Central school building, were, or were supposed to be, to a considerable extent, jobs in which one or more of the district officers were personally interested. An offer on the part of one of these suspected officers to buy, at considerable discount, a claim for a part of the work, which claim, it was said, could not be paid for want of funds in the treasury, was rejected; and thereupon the director refused to sign the warrant for the claim as required by law, alleging the work had not been performed according to contract. The work would be received and the warrant drawn, provided the person in whose favor it was drawn would sell it to the director at sufficient sacrifice to enable the latter to make a handsome profit; but if there were no margins in it, the work would not be accepted. That is the construction we put on the transaction, at any rate, and we do not expect to have an argument with anybody on the subject. Litigation followed, and we are in possession of information that satisfies us that such means were employed to make the evidence tally with the objections made to the work, as were even more reprehensible than the conduct out of which the litigation arose.

Then, the district—which is the city—lost somewhat over $8,000 through the defalcation of the other of the officers supposed to be in the same arrangement. He has gone to his final account, and we should not refer to the facts, save for the purpose of warning the tax-payers of the district of a design to revive the same practices that prevailed two years since, by the election of the same man as director who was chiefly instrumental in the inauguration of the system of abuses that led finally to the events just recited. A year ago the people repudiated him and chose in his stead a gentleman in every way worthy of the trust. But now, as another school election draws nigh, it is current talk on the streets that the thrifty individual will be a candidate again. He has been restless and dissatisfied ever since he was spewed out by the voters, and it is alleged that he is marshaling his forces for the purpose of reinstating himself. This will not be so easily accomplished under the present system of voting as it would have been under the system in vogue when a rabble made him director before; but it can be done, nevertheless, if the tax-payers take no interest in preventing it. It is time to begin casting about for some person to fill the place.

THE STRIKES.

Of late there has been an unusual amount of trouble with the trades unions. Perhaps there have been no more strikes than formerly, no more men thrown out of employment, and no more disturbance of business relations in consequence of the action of the unions. But they have pushed matters to greater extremes in particular cases than ever before in this country. History appears to be repeating itself in this respect, and the enormities committed by the English Unions some years ago, are just beginning here. The burning of the houses of working men at a Pennsylvania mine a few days since, and the shooting of the engineer, are only more violent and lawless than the proceedings that have been noted in other parts of the country within a short period.

It is a singular fact, and yet apparently it is a fact, that the law has not sufficient strength and efficiency to protect employers and those who choose to work outside the rules of the unions in the exercise of their legal rights. The subject is therefore rapidly assuming such proportions as will challenge the wisdom of the country to devise some mode of reaching and overcoming the evil. Unless something is done in the way of legislation, the industries on which all prosperity depends will ere long be paralyzed. The remedy will hardly be reached through class legislation, or [illegible] and prescribe all the relations between employer and employe. Something may be done in that direction, and indeed such legislation may be found necessary to control the rapacity of avarice and secure the operative from oppression; but this must be merely supplementary to stringent general laws against all the species of lawlessness we have referred to. The first, and so far as can yet be seen, the most essential matter to be attended to, is to inspire in the members of these societies a decent respect for law and a wholesome fear of its sanctions. If afterwards it should be found, as in all human probability it would be, that the condition of the operatives required special legislation for their protection, it could be had. At present it is the other party that stands most in need of assistance.

There is no doubt that social intercourse and organized methods of consultation and co-operation are calculated to confer great benefits on the classes of persons who engage in these trades union demonstrations. There is no class that cannot derive advantage from such means. The formation of societies for such purposes is therefore desirable, and should be encouraged. But any society or organization that interferes with the right of persons who are not members of it, to perform labor or services on such terms as they choose, or which proposes by force to fix the price a man shall pay for the labor of those who do not belong to the society, or to dictate whom he shall employ, is wrong in principle and evil in all its effects; and the acts of its members in violation of law, should be dealt with without the least degree of allowance. There is not the slightest ground to doubt that the operatives themselves, and their families, suffer more in consequence of the arbitrary proceedings of their societies than from all the oppressions they seek by this foolish method to prevent. Thus their own interests, the interests of their families, the interests of the industries of the country, and the considerations of good order in the community combine to demand that an end be put to the lawlessness of these organizations.

SILETZ RESERVATION.

The following is the amendment offered by Senator Hipple to the Indian appropriation bill:

That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he hereby is, authorized to remove all bands of Indians now located upon the Alsea and Siletz Indian reservation, set apart for them by Executive order dated November 9, 1855, and restored to the public domain by Executive order of December 21, 1865, and to locate said Indians upon the following described tract of country, namely: Beginning at a point two miles south of the Siletz agency; thence west to the Pacific Ocean; thence north, along said ocean, to the mouth of Salmon river; thence due east to the western boundary of the eighth range of townships west of the Willamette meridian; thence south with said boundary to a point due east of the place of beginning; thence west to the place of beginning; which is hereby set apart as a permanent reservation for the Indians now occupying the same, and to be hereafter located thereon. And all the balance of said Alsea and Siletz reservations is hereby thrown open to settlement under the land laws of the United States.

After some discussion in the course of which Shearman of Ohio intimated pretty plainly that he suspected the Oregon Senator of being engaged in some job in connection with the matter, Allison introduced an amendment to the amendment of Senator Hipple, in the form of a proviso as follows:

Provided, That these Indians shall not be removed until their consent has been obtained.

With this proviso, the amendment was adopted. The effect of this amendment, provided the Indians down toward the Alsea shall agree to it, will be to confine within the limits of what is known as the Siletz reservation, all the Indians now on both that and the Alsea reservation. There are only about 200 on the Alsea, and the number on the Siletz reservation is in the neighborhood of 1,200. So the new reservation will locate about 1,400 Indians.

THE PENN MONTHLY.—This magazine occupies a distinctive place in the periodical literature of the country. Its matter is all of the weighty kind. It is meat, not milk. All who are inclined to solid reading, enjoy very highly the essays and discussions it presents. Its book notices are particularly judicious and discriminating. Among the interesting papers in the March number are, "National Education," "The Hygiene of the Eye," "Charles Kingsly," "Biological Researches," "The Greville Memoirs," etc. Published by the Penn Monthly Association; 506 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

The report of the select committee on Louisiana affairs is exceedingly voluminous, covering the entire history of the political condition of the State since the close of the war. It was drawn by George F. Hoar, and it is said the draft prepared by him underwent no alteration when it was submitted to the committee. From some of its statements of fact Phelps and Foster dissented, but all the Republican members of the committee concurred as to the conclusions. It is spoken of as a strong and vigorously written paper.

The Albany Journal says: For the art of gerrymandering in all its completeness and audacity, commend us to the Democratic Legislature of Alabama. They give the 94,000 Republican voters of the State one Congressman and the 107,000 Democratic voters seven Congressmen! Their efforts to piece out the one Republican district with "contiguous territory," reminds a Republican legislator of "a ram's horn hunting the points of the compass."

There is danger of a war between the United States and Rhode Island. The particulars of the casus belli have not been telegraphed, but enough comes over the wires to demonstrate the courage and spirit of the Governor of Rhode Island. His message is a hundred per cent. more bellicose in tone than those of the Bourbon State Governors who called the attention of the legislatures of their States to the Louisiana coup d'etat.

The Albany (N. Y.) Journal mentions the killing of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railway bill, as "another blow at the Congressional lobby."

London bankers have subscribed the loan of $3,000,000, asked for the Republic of Colombia. The rate of interest is 7 per cent.

The Chicago Tribune strongly opposed the passage of the Force bill.

EXCELSIOR OATS.

A Washington report of Feb. 21, says:

A recent report of the House committee on agriculture says experiments with the Excelsior oats, a new variety, imported by the Agricultural Department, for this and former years, show an average production of 40 bushels [illegible] yield. Estimating the average production per acre, if generally introduced, an increase of but four bushels per acre over the average yield of 1868, the addition to the wealth of the country, in the item of oats alone, would be 38,022,944 bushels, or $21,284,619 in value. The weight of the product of this variety of oats for a few years after its introduction may be fairly averaged at five per cent. above the common kinds, estimating the latter at 30 pounds per bushel and the former at 36 pounds, although in many cases, 40 and 45 pounds per measured bushel have been reported. Add 25 per cent. to the sum above ascertained, and an increase will be shown in the productive industries of the country of the enormous sum of $25,517,342 per annum.

We did not think, says the Chicago Tribune, that the St. Louis Democrat was independent Republican enough to express its notions of the Butler-Pinchback business so plainly as the following language implies:

What a ridiculous falsehood it is for Butler or Pinchback to pretend that the exclusion of this colored individual from the Senate is because of his color! In that same body already sits one colored member from Mississippi; another, Revels, was admitted years ago; and still another, Bruce, will take his seat on the 4th of March without objection. The sole ground on which Pinchback was rejected is that the legislature and State Government from which he derives his claim to a seat were never legally elected, and the Senate knows it. Let Mr. Butler stop his canting demagogueism about the colored vote; the Republican party has been fooled too much by him, and other such men, into efforts to catch this, or that, or the other class of vote. It is high time for the party to begin looking after, not the German vote, nor the colored vote, but the people's vote.

Premium Carriage Factory
E. SMITH,
CARRIAGE MAKER,
Cor. Jefferson and Front Streets,
PORTLAND, OREGON,
Is now making First-Class EXPRESS WAGONS, BUGGIES and CARRIAGES of all kinds.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

At the Oregon State Fair, recently held at Salem, Mr. E. Smith was awarded the First Premiums on an Open and also on a Top Buggy. The latter was built from a design published in the June number of The Carriage Monthly, styled "Monitor Piano-Box Buggy," and elicited much admiration.—The Philadelphia Carriage Monthly.

MR. E. SMITH, of Portland, has on exhibition at the State Fair two Buggies, both Open and Top, and certainly exhibit as good workmanship as can be found on the Coast, while several very important Improvements have been added, especially in ironing the same so as not to weaken the axles, by putting the bolts through the same. The commendable enterprise that Mr. Smith has displayed, we understand, is being amply rewarded in our city. He will be awarded the first Premium.—Oregonian.

MR. E. SMITH, Carriage Maker, of Portland, exhibited one Open and one Covered Buggy upon the Fair Grounds, which deserve special mention. These Carriages are especially light and durable, and those in need of such a purchase—and who isn't—should call upon him before purchasing elsewhere. Of course Mr. Smith bore off the blue ribbons.—New Northwest.

MR. E. SMITH, Carriage Maker, corner of Front and Jefferson streets, took two Premiums at the State Fair for First-Class Buggies. This speaks well for his work, and is a credit to Portland.—Pacific Christian Advocate.

HOME MANUFACTURE.—Mr. E. Smith, Carriage Maker, of this city, has some splendid Vehicles on exhibition at the Fair.—Temperance Star.

MISSIONARY CONCERT.—At the monthly missionary concert given at the Taylor-street E. church, yesterday afternoon, there was perfect jam. The large auditorium of the church was crowded to repletion, every seat being occupied. Benches were placed along the aisles for the accommodation of the crowd that continued to pour in long after the room was filled; but even then, all could not find sitting room. The exercises, which were of an unusually interesting character, commenced with singing by the congregation. A fervent prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Flynn, followed with the singing of a quartette by the Amphion Club. Rev. R. Bentley, the pastor of the church, next delivered a very short but interesting address on the subject of "Cities of Refuge." Following the address came a solo by little Maggie Sutherland, rendered in a sweet, simple manner. "Star of the Morning," a recitation, came next on the programme, by Mollie Dierdorff, following which was a song, accompanied with appropriate Scriptural recitations by the infant class. Little Florence Savier, a Miss not to exceed, in age seven years, next came forward and sang with sweet, childish simplicity, a solo entitled "Papa Can't Leave the Store." Class exercise, "Come Over and Help Us," by four small girls, next claimed the attention of the large audience. The Amphion Club favored the audience with another appropriate quartette, rendered in a beautiful style, after which was presented class exercises, "Insects of the Bible," by a number of small children. Singing by the congregation was then introduced, in which all heartily participated. Miss Rena Turpin next came forward on the platform and sang the beautiful solo, "Come Little One, Come Unto Me." J. W. Robb, Esq., was introduced and proceeded to address the pupils of the school and those who were not pupils in behalf of the missionary cause. By particular request, Mrs. Bentley sang a solo entitled "If I were a Voice," in so excellent a manner as to cause the large and appreciative audience to momentarily forget the sacred character of the building and the religious order of the exercises, and reward the lady with applause. A collection was taken up in aid of the missionary cause, and a substantial sum realized. Music by the Amphion Club, singing by the congregation, "Shall we Gather at the River," and benediction, concluded the highly interesting and profitable exercises.

STEAMER AJAX.—Since the "shoe" of the steamer Ajax was discovered to be broken, a number of men have been engaged in repairing the vessel, so that she will be able to reach San Francisco. A large piece of timber has been placed across the stern of the steamer, above the propeller and steering gearing, and strongly lashed with ropes and chains. From each end of the timber a powerful wire cable extends down, and is attached on each side of the "shoe." By means of tackling, the cable at each end is hauled taut, and thus the broken portions of the "shoe" are held firmly in their proper positions. It is thought that with these appliances, the steering gearing can be kept in position until the vessel reaches San Francisco. At all events, Capt. Bolles and the company are determined to make the trial. Work has been going forward night and day since the steamer was discovered to be in a disabled condition, and she will probably start down the river at an early hour this morning. It was found necessary to take out only a few hundred tons of freight aft, so as to enable the men to get at the "shoe." No passengers, excepting those who may choose to run the risk, will take passage on the Ajax. She will carry away a full cargo of freight.

TUG HURT—NARROW ESCAPE.—A few days ago, Mr. Becannon, of the tug Ben Holladay, met with a severe accident, and narrowly escaped drowning, while towing the schooner Superior down the river. When about opposite the head of Swan Island, the rudder of the tug became foul and refused to obey the wheel. The tug was under a full head of steam, and was making straight for the shore. To avoid an accident, Mr. Becannon ran aft to cast off the tow line. In doing this, both his legs were caught in a coil of the cable and very severely mashed, and quicker than a flash he was tossed overboard and fell head first into the river. Several persons who witnessed the accident sprang to the rescue. A boat was instantly lowered and Mr. Becannon rescued from peril. He was so disabled that he could not swim a stroke, and would inevitably have drowned had not assistance been rendered quickly. After being taken on board, Mr. B. was unable to stand alone or use his legs, so great was the pain. He is now able to hobble around, and will resume work in a week or so. It was a very close call.

PASSENGERS.—The steamer Oriflamme, which sailed from San Francisco for Portland on Saturday, brings the following passengers: Jacob Mayer, Miss Holder, Miss J. C. Crews, Mrs. O. F. Graves, Mrs. S. E. Binder, Mrs. A. A. McCully, Miss Bessie Tracy, Miss M. Berger, Master Harry Hatch, Mrs. E. Stokely, Marshall Blinn, J. A. Bradley, J. Stephen Jones, C. A. Burchardt, P. Bin, J. Kohn, Jas. SNAGGED.—On Friday afternoon, while the Willamette Chief was descending the Willamet with a full freight, and a number of passengers on board, she ran afoul of a snag opposite Beuna Vista, and stove a hole in her hull. Not knowing the full extent of damage sustained, the pilot headed the steamer for the shore. He succeeded in beaching the boat, when an examination was made. It was ascertained that a small hole had been stove in the hull, but not of sufficient size to prevent the damage being easily repaired. A few hours delay occurred, during which time the breach was repaired and the steamer proceeded on the trip. At the time, the Chief had on board 314 tons of wheat,—not a bushel of which had to be discharged. But a small quantity of water entered the hull, and not a pound of freight sustained damage. The Chief stopped at the locks for repairs and will probably reach the city this afternoon.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Oregon Bible Society took place last evening at the Taylor street church. There was a very large attendance, the commodious auditorium being scarcely adequate to seat the audience. A very profitable time was experienced. Addresses were delivered by General Howard, Revs. D. J. Pierce and R. Bentley, interspersed with congregational singing. At the close of the exercises a collection was taken in aid of the Bible cause, and a substantial sum realized.

TEA MEETING.—There will be a tea meeting at the Taylor-street church next Wednesday evening, to be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Social Union. Music, vocal and instrumental, will be had, with other exercises of a literary character. A bounteous supper will be furnished free. The public is cordially invited to attend. Admission tickets, fifty cents.

BIG FREIGHTS.—The steamers Willamette Chief and Gov. Grover reached Oregon City on Friday and Saturday, bound for this city, with 311 and 205 tons of wheat respectively. The former was delayed at the locks till to-day. Business on the upper Willamet does not seem to be waning.

ANNUAL ELECTION.—This evening there will be held the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the rooms, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. All members of the association are requested to be in attendance.

FINE WORKMANSHIP.—We noticed at the shop of Welch & Morgan, on Saturday, a fine set of harness, which were made by that firm expressly for the splendid team driven by Dr. Chapman. The work reflects credit on any firm which turns out such a job.

Spring style of fashionable silk hat received per Oriflamme, introduced this day by Currier & Co., hatters and clothiers.

CITY.

MISSIONARY CONCERT.—At the monthly missionary concert given at the Taylor-street M. E. church, yesterday afternoon, there was a perfect jam. The large auditorium of the church was crowded to repletion, every seat being occupied. Benches were placed along the aisles for the accommodation of the crowd that continued to pour in long after the room was filled; but even then, all could not find sitting room. The exercises, which were of an unusually interesting character, commenced with singing by the congregation. A fervent prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Flynn, followed with the singing of a quartette by the Amphion Club. Rev. R. Bentley, the pastor of the church, next delivered a very short but interesting address on the subject of "Cities of Refuge." Following the address came a solo by little Maggie Sutherland, rendered in a sweet, simple manner. "Star of the Morning," a recitation, came next on the programme, by Mollie Dierdorff, following which was a song, accompanied with appropriate Scriptural recitations by the infant class. Little Florence Saxier, a Miss not to exceed in age seven years, next came forward and sang with sweet, childish simplicity, a solo entitled "Papa Can't Leave the Store." Class exercise, "Come Over and Help Us," by four small girls, next claimed the attention of the large audience. The Amphion Club favored the audience with another appropriate quartette, rendered in a beautiful style, after which was presented class exercises, "Insects of the Bible," by a number of small children. Singing by the congregation was then introduced, in which all heartily participated. Miss Rena Turpin next came forward on the platform and sang the beautiful solo, "Come Little One, Come Unto Me." J. W. Robb, Esq., was introduced and proceeded to address the pupils of the school and those who were not pupils in behalf of the missionary cause. By particular request, Mrs. Bentley sang a solo entitled "If I were a Voice," in so excellent a manner as to cause the large and appreciative audience to momentarily forget the sacred character of the building and the religious order of the exercises, and reward the lady with applause. A collection was taken up in aid of the missionary cause, and a substantial sum realized. Music by the Amphion Club, singing by the congregation, "Shall we Gather at the River" and benediction, concluded the highly interesting and profitable exercises.

STEAMER AJAX.—Since the "shoe" of the steamer Ajax was discovered to be broken, a number of men have been engaged in repairing the vessel, so that she will be able to reach San Francisco. A large piece of timber has been placed across the stern of the steamer, above the propeller and steering gearing, and strongly lashed with ropes and chains. From each end of the timber a powerful wire cable extends down, and is attached on each side of the "shoe." By means of tackling, the cable at each end is hauled taut, and thus the broken portions of the "shoe" are held firmly in their proper positions. It is thought that with these appliances, the steering gearing can be kept in position until the vessel reaches San Francisco. At all events, Capt. Bolles and the company are determined to make the trial. Work has been going forward night and day since the steamer was discovered to be in a disabled condition, and she will probably start down the river at an early hour this morning. It was found necessary to take out only a few hundred tons of freight aft, so as to enable the men to get at the "shoe." No passengers, excepting those who may choose to run the risk, will take passage on the Ajax. She will carry away a full cargo of freight.

LIFE SAVED—NARROW ESCAPE.—A few days ago Mr. Becannon, of the tug Ben Holladay, met with a severe accident, and narrowly escaped drowning, while towing the schooner Superior down the river. When about opposite the head of Swan Island, the rudder of the tug became foul and refused to obey the wheel. The tug was under a full head of steam, and was running straight for the shore. To avoid an accident, Mr. Becannon ran aft to cut off the tow line. In doing this, both his legs were caught in a coil of the cable and very severely crushed, and quicker than a flash he was tossed overboard and fell head first into the river. Several persons who witnessed the accident sprang to the rescue. A boat was speedily lowered and Mr. Becannon rescued from peril. He was so disabled that he could not swim a stroke, and would certainly have drowned had not assistance been rendered quickly. After being taken on board Mr. B. was unable to stand alone or use his limbs, so great was the pain. He is now able to hobble around, and will resume work in a week or so. It was a very close call.

PASSENGERS.—The steamer Oriflamme, which sailed from San Francisco for Portland on Saturday, brings the following passengers: Jacob Mayer, Miss Holder, Miss J. C. Crews, Mrs. O. F. Graves, Mrs. S. E. Binder, Mrs. A. A. McCully, Miss Bessie Tracy, Miss M. Berger, Master Harry Hatch, Mrs. E. Stokely, Marshall Blinn, J. A. Bradley, J. Stephen Jones, C. A. Burchardt, P. Blinn, J. Kolin, Jas. Irving, T. Dittenhoefer, C. B. Prescott, T. H. Allen, G. W. Edwards, M. W. Fechheimer and family, C. Rodney, U. S. A.; T. Haddock, G. Beck, A. A. Newbery, Joe Harris, T. D. Henry, C. Scott, J. F. Miller, W. Pierce, D. M. Meeks, G. Coggan and wife, G. W. Cowgill and wife, L. T. Senter and wife, J. Wood, Chas. Nickerson, M. Jefferson, J. Wallace, Miss M. Smith, M. Carroll, J. H. Dehlany, M. Butler, McCamey, Miss E. Stewart, Dr. G. L. Nottage, Miss Harrington, H. Norton, D. M. Plamondon.

STRANDED.—On Friday afternoon, while the Willamette Chief was descending the Wallamet with a full freight and a number of passengers on board, she ran afoul of a snag opposite Bella Vista, and stove a hole in her hull. Not knowing the full extent of damage sustained, the pilot headed the steamer for the shore. He succeeded in beaching the boat, where an examination was made. It was ascertained that the hole had been stove in, but not of sufficient size to prevent the damage being easily repaired. A few hours' delay occurred, during which time the injury was repaired and the steamer proceeded on the trip. At the time, the Chief had on board 311 tons of wheat—not a bushel of which had to be discharged. But a small quantity of water entered the hull, and not a pound of freight sustained damage. The Chief stopped at the locks for repairs and will probably reach the city this afternoon.

AMUSEMENTS.

"COLLEEN BAWN."—One of the largest and most fashionable audiences ever seen within the walls of Oro Fino Theater, was present on Saturday evening, the occasion being the production of the beautiful Irish drama, "Colleen Bawn." Mrs. R. B. Knapp was announced to appear as "Anna Chute" in the drama, and the very large attendance was attributable more to the great curiosity excited as to how that lady would look, dress and act before the dazzle of the footlights, than to any other circumstance of the play. In fact, Mrs. Knapp was justly regarded as the "bright particular star" and stellar attraction for that evening. Candor compels us to say that the lady in question came fully up to the standard of public expectation, and it might be just to add, exceeded in many respects what was anticipated. It being the first time that Mrs. Knapp had ever ventured on the histrionic boards, before the critical and critisising eyes of a Portland audience, as a natural consequence, there was much interest felt in social circles, not unmixed with that species of curiosity, so common in human nature, as to how the fair aspirant for dramatic fame would acquit herself in the self-chosen role. So familiar are the public with the plot, incidents and situations of the drama, that it is a needless task to enumerate any of them in this connection. As "Anna Chute," Mrs. Knapp did the part no injustice, although the rendition was quite faulty and defective in many particulars, when measured by the strict and impartial rules of criticism. To expect a novice, wholly inexperienced in the profession to invest a part, however subordinate, with that degree of interest, warmth, passion and dramatic tact, which the situations would seem to inspire, would be manifestly unjust. While some of the essentials mentioned were noticeably deficient, the fair debutante more than compensated for what was missing in tone, gestures and elocution, by dressing the part with superb taste and effect. In the matter of dress, there has not been for years such a magnificent display of wardrobe on the Oro Fino stage as that worn by Mrs. Knapp. Added to this, can be enumerated in favor of the debutante, a good stage presence, handsome face and form, and manners bewitchingly winning. At times the lady manifested a little nervousness and want of true dramatic intensity, which nothing but complete confidence in one's self can inspire; but in the main her acting was vivacious and natural, and the lines rendered with a grace and feeling which challenged admiration from the most apathetic. All disadvantages considered, Mrs. Knapp passed through the trying ordeal with credit, and deserves the hearty congratulations of her friends. The lady gave ample proof of the possession of histrionic talent of no mean order, and if she should see proper to choose the stage as a profession, there is good reason to predict for her a brilliant career. Patient study and experience would enable a lady of Mrs. Knapp's natural dramatic taste and ability, to assume a front rank in the profession. Miss Mary Pollock as "Mrs. Cregan" dressed the part elegantly, and rendered the character with becoming grace and matronly dignity. The young lady by her careful and faultless personation of the character assigned, strengthened and confirmed the favorable impression made by her excellent rendering of "Lady Florence" in "Rosedale," some weeks ago. She possesses a fair measure of native talent, and with study and the cultivation of self-reliance, can hope to succeed admirably. We cannot omit to mention, in a complimentary manner, the name of Mr. J. Cliff Blake, who personated the character of "Hardress Cregan." His "make-up" was faultless, and his acting throughout careful, natural and pleasing. Of the remainder of the cast: Mrs. Fulford, "Ely O'Connor"; R. Fulford, "Kyle Daley"; R. Clinton, "Miles Na-Coppaleen"; S. Dennis, "Danny Mann"; R. White, "Father Tom"; E. J. Crowell, "Old Corrigan," and Miss Heath, "Sheelah," it is needless to speak, the persons named being professionals. Financially the play was a decided triumph, and the large audience went away well satisfied with what they had seen and heard.

P. C. Hetzler, whose zeal and faithfulness has been fruitful of happy and encouraging results.

The regular meetings of the executive committee are held on the first Wednesday evening of each month for the transaction of such business as the Bible cause may seem to demand.

In closing their report the executive committee would earnestly invoke the personal sympathy, interest and aid of all the friends of the great cause of Bible distribution.

The cause is that of universal man. The Bible alone reveals to him the way of life, and the extent of its usefulness is measured by the means invested in the work of dissemination.

PROBABILITIES OF POPULATION.—There is going to be some disappointments in 1900, if the orators who used to blow about the probability of there being 100,000,000 inhabitants in this country at that epoch survive to see it. It is easy to fall into the error of supposing that the rapid ratio of increase in a new country is going to last forever. The presumption is going the rounds, in connection with the petition for a mint at Chicago, that, as the six States of Illinois, Louisiana, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska and Wisconsin have now a population of 7,000,000 and have increased at the rate of 64 per cent. in the last decade, they will therefore have a population of 25,000,000 in 1900. But in the light of the lessons of the census and of the constantly decreasing ratio of growth, we should say that these States will feel very self-congratulatory in 1900, if they have a population then as large as they had in 1870.—Springfield Republican.

The following summary of the exploits of the carpet-baggers of Arkansas is taken from the New York Herald:

In 1868 the whole bonded debt of the State was $3,250,000. It had no floating debt, and had over $300,000 in the Treasury. From July, 1868, to October, 1874, the treasury received over $6,500,000, a floating debt was incurred of nearly $2,000,000, and the bonded debt was increased $8,750,000—that is to say, in six years the men who ruined Arkansas spent $17,000,000, and this in a State which has less than half a million of people.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—An accident occurred on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad on Saturday night near Sheffield, Ill., by which a sleeping and two other coaches were thrown from the track. One of the coaches fell down an embankment fifteen feet. About fifteen persons were injured, but no names can yet be ascertained. Only one person was killed, a school teacher residing at Tiskilwa. A broken rail was the cause of the accident.

Endorsements of the People's Remedy.—When skillful and cautious medical men give over their own signatures a favorable opinion of the soothing and vitalizing effects of a preparation, the public does not hesitate to believe them. The voluminous and emphatic professional testimony in favor of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a specific for all disorders of the stomach and bowels, for liver complaint, intermittent and remittent fevers, and the thousand ills that wait upon dyspepsia, must convince the most skeptical. Aside, however, from the testimony of the faculty, there is a large mass of evidence from patients in every walk of life, all showing that this great preventive and restorative is of inestimable value to the sick and the debilitated. The Bitters are suited to all climates, and are universally endorsed as a preventive of disorders caused by miasma and impure water.

ASK THE MOTHERS.—Women have better opportunities for observing the effects of medicine than men. This is especially true of mothers, who note with a keenness born of affection, the operation of the remedies they administer to their children. Now ask any mother who has used HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, in her family as a cure for coughs, colds, hoarseness, whooping cough, croup or influenza, what she thinks of it. The answer in every instance will be that she has found it the most effective preparation of its kind she has ever tried or heard of.

PIKE'S TOOTH-ACHE DROPS—Cure in one minute.

It has surprised thousands to witness the beneficial effects which result from a use of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. Consumption reaches its dreaded strength through neglected colds. These colds may be completely cured by the use of this preparation, also the many forms of bronchitis, whooping cough, and other distressing accompaniments of consumption.

MIGRATING ICELANDERS.

PROPOSED HEGIRA OF A WHOLE PEOPLE FROM THEIR OWN COUNTRY TO THE FRIGID KADIAK ISLANDS BELONGING TO THE UNITED STATES.

[Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1875.—Mr. Jon Olafsen, a native of Iceland, is in this city for the purpose of promoting such measures as will facilitate the settlement of the Kadiac Islands—an archipelago lying south of the Alaska peninsula—by an Icelandic colony. Through changes that have taken place in its climate, Iceland has become less capable than formerly to sustain a population; and, in consequence of this, the number of its inhabitants is diminishing. The time is not inconceivably distant when, like Greenland, it will have to be abandoned by its rural population; and, with wise forethought, Mr. Olafsen has been searching for a region to which his countrymen may remove, without encountering unfavorable climatic conditions.

Mr. Olafsen is a man of not more than thirty years of age, of fine abilities and attainments, and of polished manners. He speaks the English and several European languages with purity; and, although they have no schools in Iceland, is as well informed as an American gentleman who has enjoyed the best of institutional advantages. He has spent one or more seasons in exploring the Alaska possessions of the United States, and has fixed upon the Kadiac Islands as the spot which, in his opinion, would best conform to the sanitary requirements and industrial proclivities of the Icelanders.

The Kadiac Islands lie in 55 to 58 degrees of latitude north, and in 150 to 155 of longitude west. The climate is moist, the soil of the main island especially, is fertile, and it is believed that, in respect to their agricultural capacity, these islands are not unlike the north of Scotland. Good barley, oats, and probably rye can be produced, and the soil is well adapted to the culture of roots.

The only present inhabitants of the Kadiacs are a few hundred Aleuts—allied to the Esquimaux—who subsist entirely by hunting and fishing, and who neither hunt nor fish until they are driven to it by pressing necessity. Among the most lazy and squalid of races, they live in a state of peonage to the few traders who have an establishment among them, the few seal and sea otter skins which they capture being mortgaged beforehand for trifles, whisky and ammunition.

The efforts of Mr. Olafsen are directed to procure the extension of the homestead and pre-emption laws to these islanders, and, if possible, some assistance toward the transportation of the emigrants across the continent. There are already in the United States and Canada several hundred Icelanders, who do not find the country of their present residence congenial on account of its climate, and who are anxious that a way shall be opened for them in a region to which they are better adapted.

To assist in securing an intelligent, industrious, and simple-hearted people—a people who have, thus far, retained their primitive habits and have escaped the sophistication of that plutomania which is so generally prevalent in Christendom—from the slow but sure decay to which they are doomed in the land of their nativity, and in planting them where their industry will be profitable to themselves and to the rest of mankind, would be an act in every sense praiseworthy and honorable. There is an interest which is opposed to this measure, so wise and benevolent and so in conformity with the spirit of past practice; and that interest is active. It is that of the lessees of the Pribyloffs—the fur seal islands—who pay the sum of $50,000 per annum for a monopoly in the butchery of the fur seals which resort in those islands for breeding purposes. The two groups of islands—the Kadiac and the Pribyloff—are over 600 miles apart, the Alaskan peninsula interposing; but there is nevertheless now and then a seal which finds its way to the waters near the former, and to defend its interests in these the fur company labors to prevent almost the only piece of territory in the Arctic regions of the United States that is capable of agriculture from being inhabited.

There are probably no other people on the face of the globe who would choose as a land to which to emigrate the Kadiac Islands, than the Icelanders. Leave their country or perish, in no long time, they must; and if the United States is desirous to implant civilization in that part of its domain, here is an opportunity which, if neglected, will never return.

Whether the lessees of the Pribyloffs are faithfully keeping their contract, and so preserving the seals as to prevent the diminution of their numbers, or whether they are wasting them in such a manner as to bring about their extermination, is a matter concerning which there are two different stories. The fact that there is a Government official whose place of duty is in that region, who, a year or two ago, was inclined to denounce the company with extreme cruelty, but has since changed his tone to one of extravagant eulogy, may look suspicious. Upon this point, if two commissioners, or sub-committees, were sent to investigate, they would probably agree but little better in their reports than parties similarly authorized have on similar occasions.

A DARING FEAT.—It is seldom that we are called upon to chronicle a more daring feat, or one deserving of greater commendation than the following: Yesterday afternoon, in the bottom of the new shaft of the Woodville mine, three men had just prepared a three-fuse blast, had lighted the fuse, jumped into the bucket and started for the surface, when, through the carelessness of the engineer, the engine caught on the center and refused to work. Here the three men hung, within six feet of the blast, for some little time, but it seemed like hours to them. At last, one of the party, Benjamin Kendall by name, realizing that something must be wrong on top, jumped from the bucket and proceeded to extinguish the slowly burning fuse. Two pieces were put out without difficulty, but the third he found it impossible to reach, as it had already burned in the drill hole. Then he turned to climb back into the bucket, but it was too late, his companions were then being hoisted to the surface. Who can imagine the mental agony endured by that man when he saw that he had been left to his fate, and liable at any moment to be blown into eternity? With a desperate resolve he started to climb up the timbers, but he had not gone more than five or six feet on his way when the blast exploded, throwing a shower of rocks and dirt above his head. Fortunately Kendall was but little injured, receiving merely but a few slight scratches on his hands. It was a very close call and one that will long be remembered by him. The engineer was discharged.—Gold Hill News, February 13th.

WHAT HE WAS DOING.—Last night a policeman, passing along Eighth street, discovered a ghostly object standing by a gate, and crossing over found that it was a man in his night clothes. "I didn't know but that you were walking in your sleep," said the officer. "No, I was standing here to wait till the old woman got over being mad, and dropped off to sleep," quietly replied the citizen.—St. Joe Herald.

LOOKED AS HE FELT.—"What is the matter, my dear?" asked a wife of her husband, who had sat half an hour with his face buried in his hands and apparently in great tribulation. "Oh, I don't know," said he; "I've felt like a fool all day." "Well," returned the wife, consolingly, "I'm afraid you'll never be any better—you look the very picture of what you feel."

Though the latest wheat telegrams from Liverpool indicated a rise of 2d per cental on lots of average California, ex warehouse, no other change in that market was noted by the same advices, yet it is fair to presume that other qualities as club and Oregon wheat, and wheat in transit and for shipment were correspondingly advanced and were quotable nominally zero much higher.

The aspect of commercial affairs at the close of the week is hardly as encouraging as was hoped for at the opening, owing to the extremely bad weather which has ruled a part of the time, and has kept many business men of interior towns out of the market, and yet our merchants seem to keep in cheerful spirits and to be hopeful of the future. Though the room for improvement in trade is ample, yet there has been in the aggregate a fair amount of business done even up to the present this season. The apathy which has prevailed during the past two months in the grain trade has doubtless been the cause of retarded movement in most other branches of trade, but some revival is noticed since the first of the current month, and general merchandise is changing hands in greater volume than before, and it now begins to look as if we would have a fair amount of trade in spite of the dullness in the breadstuffs market, which continues quite as inactive and without any fluctuation in sales.

Dairy Products—Butter, 22½@27½c; new cheese, 15@17c; fresh eggs, 25c.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—The transactions in this cereal continue very limited, as there is not much to encourage business, the prices of tonnage ruling about as at last reports, and the foreign markets, though slightly improved, being considered in a fluctuating condition and liable to move up or down according to circumstances, the probabilities being about as much in favor of one direction as the other. The vessels now at hand under engagement, are all well along in loading, and at present there is but one in port loading,—the Corsica—and she will be finished by the first of next week. The Euterpe is at Astoria, and lacks about 500 tons, while the Conflict at the same place, has completed. Under these circumstances, it is not strange that shippers are indifferent purchasers and decline to quote at anything over $1 35 per cental for ordinary lots. A round lot, however, would probably find a buyer at $1 37½.

FLOUR—The bark Spirit of the Dawn has just cleared for Liverpool with nearly 12,000 barrels of flour. The stocks in hand are quite large and receipts continue to be heavy from mills in the interior. Quotations remain at $4 25@4 50 per bbl for jobbing lots of standard extras; $4 for good outside and country brands, and $3 50@3 75 for superfine.

OATS—There is a duller feeling in the market and some leading buyers decline to pay over 48 cents per bushel for fair lots, including sacks, while the extreme maximum quotations are 48 cents against 50c last week, and the demand lighter.

BARLEY—Offers no features of interest, as there have not been sufficient dealings to establish values. Receipts are decreased, and prices nominally at $1 25@1 40 ₩ 100 lbs, according to the quality.

MILL FEED—There is no improvement in the condition of the trade, and we quote the market dull at $25@27 50 per ton for middlings; bran, $13@14; chops, $25@27 50; shorts, $20; oil cake, $30.

HAY—No change in prices since last week; the supply is full for the current demand; good timothy quotable at $11@12 per ton.

POTATOES—There is a fair demand for good lots for shipment at 72½@75c per bushel, the range of quotations being 70@75c.

ONIONS—There is rather a better feeling in the market, and choice lots are quotable at $1 50 ₩ 100 pounds.

APPLES, RIPE—There are many more in the country than it was thought the cold weather had left. Shipments are free. Choice lots assorted and neatly packed command $1 per box; loose from wagons quotable at 60@75c.

APPLES, DRIED—There is the usual demand at low rates; 4½@5c ₩ lb in sacks, 5@5¼ in kegs.

BACON—The market is largely supplied and hams and shoulders find slow sale. Sides are quotable at 11@11½c ₩ lb; hams, 13@14c; shoulders, 8@9c.

LARD—There is a fair demand for a good article in kegs or tins, full weight, at 12½@13½c ₩ lb.

BUTTER—There is a greater scarcity than has been noted for a long time, and choice is eagerly sought for, for the home trade, at 40c ₩ lb.

EGGS—So depressed is the San Francisco market that few dealers care much about handling for shipment. The requirements of the home trade are fully met at 15@16 cents per dozen.

CHICKENS—Choice lots of full grown are worth $4@4 25 ₩ dozen; common and mixed, $3 25@3 75.

DRESSED HOGS—The packing season having closed, the only demand is for the home trade and is not brisk at 6@6½c ₩ lb.

BEEF CATTLE—There have been but few arrivals of choice lots during the past week, and for such, prices have advanced to 5 cts ₩ lb net on foot; ordinary quotable at 5@5½c.

MUTTON SHEEP—There are very few lots offering, and choice are worth $3 25@3 75 ₩ head, and some at the extreme of $4.

HIDES AND FURS—A duller demand for shipping purposes prevails and receipts are light. We quote for choice dry 15½c ₩ lb; green salted, 7c; green, 6½c; culls, 10@12; elk, 22c ₩ lb; deer, 18@25c ₩ lb dried, and 50@75c apiece, green; mink skins, each, $1@1 50; otter, $2@5; beaver, 25c@$1.

WOOL—Very few transactions are taking place; best grades quotable at 20@22c ₩ lb; common to fair lots, 18@19c.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organ into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed and of great benefits they have derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY RELIEF OF

Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Billious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

Has been widely used during the last twenty-five years in the treatment of these distressing diseases, and with such unvarying success that it has gained the reputation of being infallible. The shakes, or chills, once broken by it, do not return, until the disease is contracted again. This has made it an accepted remedy, and trusted specific, for the Fever and Ague of the West, and the Chills and Fever of the South.

Ayer's Ague Cure eradicates the noxious poison from the system, and leaves the patient as well as before the attack. It thoroughly expels the disease, so that no Liver Complaints, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dysentery or Debility follow the cure. Indeed, where Disorders of the Liver and Bowels have occurred from Miasmatic Poison, it removes the cause of them and they disappear. Not only is it an effectual cure, but, if taken occasionally by patients exposed to malaria, it will expel the poison and protect them from attack. Travelers and temporary residents in Fever and Ague localities are thus enabled to defy the disease. The General Debility which is so apt to ensue from continued exposure to Malaria and Miasm, has no speedier remedy.

For Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy.

After the Black Hills Miners.

CHICAGO, March 8.—A special from Omaha says General Ord, commanding the district of Nebraska, has received information from Col. Bradley, commanding Fort Laramie, that the two men who arrived there from Black Hills report twenty men, one woman and one child in the Black Hills, terribly destitute of supplies and almost starving, their only resources being game, which is difficult to obtain on account of severe weather. Gen. Ord telegraphed Bradley to send troops with supplies for their relief as soon as the weather will permit, and to bring them back. General Ord also orders the new expedition preparing to leave Sioux City for the Hills, to be stopped and compelled to return, even if it becomes necessary to destroy their outfit. General Sheridan has telegraphed Gen. Ord to clean the Black Hills of all miners and allow no more to enter.

CHICAGO, March 8.—A special says the President will at once issue stringent orders to prevent more expeditions from entering the Black Hills.

SENATE EXTRA SESSION.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—In the Senate, Clayton submitted a resolution for the appointment of a committee of four members of the committee on Indian Territory, and three of the committee on Territories, to go to the Indian Territory and examine the condition of affairs, the manner in which justice is administered, the wants of the inhabitants, &c., the committee to report.

Ferry objected to the resolution as being legislative business.

On motion of Morton, the Senate took up the resolution for the admission of Pinchback as Senator from Louisiana, and Morton addressed the Senate in favor of his admission, repeating the arguments heretofore made.

Before Morton finished his argument the Senate went into executive session.

After a short executive session, the Senate adjourned.

Probabilities of Adjournment.

A number of Senators are of the opinion that, the Pinchback question being again under discussion, the session will continue two weeks, although they can see no propriety in discussing a matter so well understood, but they suppose some new Senators may desire to express their views. The Hawaiian treaty, they think, could be disposed of in less than two days and all nominations in a much shorter time.
